---

Angie was born and raised in the Spokane County area and has worked and volunteered with the community for over 23 years. Her role at WorkSource Spokane allows her to help customers develop job search strategies. She enjoys the people and the positive attitudes of the staff that carries over to the customer experience.

What do you love about Spokane?

I love the four seasons, the proximity of mountains & lakes, and my family.

What did you want to be when you grew up?

I wanted to be a teacher, but I became an accountant instead.

What was your first job?

A commercial property rater – I determined what businesses would pay for their property and liability insurance.
